Special Music in August

During the month of August our Choir earns a respite from their important role in worship leadership. We take this opportunity to invite guests to be with us to assist in worship leadership through music. This year we have several really wonderful groups and musicians scheduled to be with us in August.

On August 5th, the Covenant Chorus will be with us. This is a local group which sings classical, traditional, and contemporary Christian music. On August 12th, Mr. Jim Mayhew will be with us. Mr. Mayhew will be playing a variety of instruments, including Native American flutes. On August 19th, we will welcome back Mr. & Mrs. Issac Bondurant. Then, on August 26th, a duet from a local Spanish-speaking mission church will be sharing with us in worship.

Make plans now to be in church for each of these special Sunday morning worship experiences. For more information, contact the church office or a member of our ministerial staff.

Church-wide Sabbatical Coming in August

During the month of August our church schedule and calendar will be revised to give a rest to many ministry groups. There will be no Wednesday evening dinners, Wednesday evening programs for children, youth, and adults, or regular practice for the Chancel Choir. There will be no Sunday evening events as well. Sunday morning CE and worship remain unchanged. Don't forget: Fall is just around the corner!

From the Pastor's Pen

KEEN KEENAGERS!

Keenagers are those members of our church family who are over the age of 60 and who enjoy times of service and fellowship. In that vein of thought let me inform you that our Keenagers will be having their monthly meeting in August at the Ollie Langhorst Apartments. The apartment complex is the residence for 100 senior adults. Having the Keenagers meeting at the apartments in one way the seniors of Southwest can touch the lives of other seniors living in our neighborhood. Our Keenagers will provide a meal and entertainment for the group.

Southwest's Keenagers are also placing the final touches on a cookbook that will be available for sale just prior to the Thanksgiving holiday. The committee working on the cookbook include Betty Noonan, Mary Earheart, Joe Hamilton and Mamie Orth. The cookbook contains almost three hundred recipes. The cookbook will have an international flavor in that it includes four recipes from an Italian cook. I'm hoping that we will have an evening where contributors to the cookbook bring some of their delights to church so we can all have a foretaste of the divine foods to be found in the book. (Hint, hint.)

Our Keenagers are also traveling to the Lyceum Theatre at Arrow Rock in September to see the final episode in the Smoke on the Mountain series and enjoy a day trip to one of the beautiful parts of our state. I'm not certain whether extra tickets are available for this excursion but if you are interested in being placed on a "wait and see" list, call our office. Tickets to the performance and transportation costs are $50. Meals are not provided in this price.
